NEW! Ellington’s Evening of Music + Poetry
*Tuesday, April 4*th* at Jesse Auditorium. Doors open at 6:30 pm.*

Join Lalah Hathaway, Joshua Bennett, Alysia Harris and Shaun Munday for an evening of soulful music and spoken word. Hosted by the Division of Inclusion, Diversity & Equity.

Tickets are FREE for students, $10.50 for general admission. This event is open to the public. To purchase tickets or for more information, click [IDE website].
To view the flier, click [HERE].

---

Diversity and Inclusion Programming

There are four more opportunities for you to join in on conversations around Diversity and Inclusion. Check out the below events for more information. For more information, click [HERE].

Book Study
Pushout by Monique W. Morris
April 4*th* from 5-6:30 pm in Arts and Science rm. 311

Open to faculty, staff, and students.
For more information, click [HERE].

Movie Discussion
Harvest of Empire
April 9*th* from 5-7:30 pm in Lewis rm. 3

Open to faculty, staff, and students.
For more information, click [HERE].

Coffee Talks
Interplay Between Culture, Language, and Cognition and the Learning Process
April 13*th* from 8:45-10 am in Lewis rm. 513

Open to faculty and staff.
For more information, click [HERE].

Difficult Dialogues
April 27*th* from 8:45-10 am in Lewis rm. 513

Open to faculty and staff.
For more information, click [HERE].
Public Health Week 2018
April 2nd – 6th

Join the Public Health Week events which include a livestream of the Surgeon General’s keynote address, a book club discussion, a health workers panel, and an information session regarding public health degrees at Mizzou. Please share with students!

For more information, click HERE.

Traveling Library – READING RECOMMENDATION
Diversity across the Curriculum subcommittee
Lewis Hall rm. 624

March is National Women’s History Month
In celebration Julie Hale recommends reading Pushout: The Criminalization of Black Girls in Schools by Monique Morris

Pushout uses stories to explore “the policies, practices, and cultural illiteracy that push countless students out of school and into unhealthy, unstable, and often unsafe futures.” Morris digs beyond the label of school-related arrests to uncover girls’ underlying stories that involve abuse, sex exploitation, and discrimination. The novel highlights the need for continued conversation including how institutions and people who should help these young girls often fail to do so.

The book can be checked out from the traveling library located in Lewis 624. We hope you read this book during March and join us for the discussion on April 4 at 5:00-6:30 (more information to come)!

If you have any questions or recommendations for the traveling library, please contact Sarah at sI3e@missouri.edu.

Healing From Racial Injustices
Every Friday, January 19th - May 4th from 2 – 3 pm in the Multicultural Center

Come share your experiences and learn strategies to heal from racial discomfort.

To view the flier, click HERE.

Workplace Diversity Series, Spring 2018
Join IDE's Office of Inclusive Engagement the Workplace Diversity Series. Working in a diverse environment brings both opportunities and challenges. By becoming more informed, gaining skills, and having conversations with others, we can improve and enhance our workplace relationships and our overall campus environment. Attend these workshops to get information, ideas and support in a safe, informative and collegial environment.

For information on the different session and to register click HERE. To view the flier, click HERE.

Constructive Communication across Differences Series, Spring 2018

Join IDE's Office of Inclusive Engagement for the spring 2018 Constructive Communication across Differences Series, in collaboration with the Department of Communication. This series is designed to enhance the capacity of faculty, staff and students to engage in conversations about challenging, emotionally-laden topics (i.e., race, discrimination, policy, politics, etc.). The skills learned in this series can be applied in the workplace, classroom, and interpersonal and community contexts.

For information on the different session and to register, click HERE. To view the flier, click HERE.

Inclusive Excellence in Boone County

Join Boone County in educational opportunities to raise awareness and provide strategies to foster inclusive excellence in our community. Begin you journey, click HERE.